Domains

Who is the Technical Contact?

The technical contact is the person responsible for handling any technical issues related to your domain name. This could be you, an IT manager, or your website developer.

The Technical contact will not be sent any correspondence containing your administrative Account Number or Password.

If you need to update your domain's technical contact, please see: How do I update my Account and Domain Contacts Information?

Unique solution ID: #1077
Author: 1st Domains Support
Last update: 2024-09-29 02:32